Ko Jordan tōku ingoa. Ko Te Whānau ā Apanui te iwi. Kei te noho au ki te Pōneke.

My name is Jordan, and although I don't reside in the Ōpōtiki district, I feel compelled to offer my support of this proposal and my Apanui whanaunga.

The return of whenua is such a significant part of actualising meaningful treaty partnership, decolonisation and healing for our people.

Furthermore, I ask that the council supports management option 3. I have every confidence in our people to care for this land as customary kaitiaki, and would mark an important step in honoring article 2 of Te Tiriti and tino rangatiratanga for our iwi and hapū.

Ngā mihi
